EDUCATION ABROAD
CUA EDUCATION ABROAD PARTICIPATION ON THE RISE
During the 2011-12 academic year, approximately 311 CUA students studied, interned or did service learning abroad which is a 16.5% increase from the previous year. Students studied abroad in over 21 countries in Europe, Latin America, Asia and Oceania and more students opted for non-traditional (non-European) locations.

CUA FACULTY LED EDUCATION ABROAD PROGRAMS
Faculty led short-term education abroad programs continue to be on the rise nationally as more students opt to travel around the world and earn credits during the winter, spring and summer breaks. CGE encourages CUA faculty to consider leading short-term overseas programs during the summer (2–5 weeks, 3-6 credits) programs. CGE will assist with planning, logistics/budget matters and offers faculty an attractive compensation packet. For more information, please contact Tanith Fowler Corsi or visit: http://cge.cua.edu/resources/

CUA FALL EDUCATION ABROAD FAIR
The 4th annual CUA Education Abroad Fair is scheduled to take place on Thursday, Sept. 13, 2012 from 11am to 2p.m. in the Pryz Great Room. This event is organized and sponsored by CUAbroad to showcase the overseas educational opportunities available to CUA students, and to allow students to meet with program representatives. The fair is open to students, parents, faculty and staff at CUA free of charge. For more info, visit: http://cuabroad.cua.edu/events/fair/index.cfm

WELCOMING NEW EDUCATION ABROAD ADVISOR FOR ARCHITECTURE PROGRAMS
CGE is pleased to introduce Marie Pius who recently joined the Center for Global Education as its new Education Abroad Advisor for Architecture programs. She is part of the CUAbroad team and advises and assists Architecture students in their preparations for education abroad. Marie Pius received her Bachelor of Arts in English at The University of Tennessee. Marie spent her junior year abroad in Dublin, Ireland studying Irish history and literature at University College Dublin. She earned a Master of Education in Higher Education Leadership at The University of Nevada, Las Vegas.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS & SCHOLARS
CUA FALL INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS ORIENTATION
The Fall 2012 International Students Orientation organized by ISSS took place on Wednesday August 22nd. More than 120 new international students are expected this Fall and they will represent over 25 countries from around the world. For more info, contact ISSS or visit: http://international.cua.edu/

THANK YOU!
CGE would like to acknowledge and thank the members of the CUA Global Education Committee for representing their respective schools, departments and groups, and contributing to the University’s global agenda. The Fall GEC meeting will take place on September 20th, 2012.
For more info, visit: http://cge.cua.edu/GEC.cfm